Mr. Keener,

I'm a reporter for Inside EPA, covering waste policy. I have some questions I'm hoping you can answer that relate to the Yerington, NV, site.

According to Region 9 Administrator Jared Blumenfeld's schedule, he was to meet with Yerington, NV, parties earlier this week. Could you tell me if this was about the Anaconda mine cleanup there, and the possibility of placing the site on the NPL?

If so, what other parties did he meet with? What came of the discussions?

Does EPA plan to list the site even if Nevada Gov. Sandoval opposes it? Has there been any response from the governor's office on this?

I'm working under a deadline of late Wed., March 9.

Thanks very much.

Sincerely,
Suzanne Yohannan
